

STORY GRID

Scene Analysis

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes

Analyzing the Scene

Title / Scene _____

Author _____ Date Analyzed _____

To determine a scene’s story event, answer these four questions:

1. What are the characters literally doing?

Scene type:

2. What is the essential action of what the characters are doing in the scene?

3. What life value has changed for one or more of the characters in the scene?

4. Which life value should I highlight on my Story Grid Spreadsheet?

5 Commandments of the Scene

Inciting Incident

☐ Causal

☐ Coincidental

Turning Point

☐ Active

☐ Revelatory

Crisis

☐ Best Bad Choice

☐ Irreconcilable Goods

Climax

Resolution

Notes